

1000 Times

JAHKOY

[Verse 1]

Don't know where we'd go girl
But at least you know I'm open
Don't know what I'm hoping for
Hope that door ain't closing
Girl you all I needed
You the one completing
Everything I'm seeing here
We were supposed to be
Sitting together while I'm writing this poetry
Now you seeing these songs
You know its me
I know this gotta be the coldest feeling
In the world to you girl
You hate to see me shining
You hate to put the time in
But you could see the cold in me
You the one that should be here holding me so

[Pre-Hook]

Give it up girl, don't play that shit
Give it up girl, don't play that shit
You the one I wanted way back then
Give it up girl, don't play that
Start giving it up girl, don't play that shit
Start it like its gon stay like this
You were the one I wanted way back then
So give it up to me

[Hook]

And I told you around 1000 times
I would chill
Then I told you around 1000 times
I need you
Girl I told you around 1000 times
And don't see through

[Post]

But I hope it bleeds through
Girl I see you

And all them things you do
Yeah all them things you do
You got me and its new
Cause nobody could do this
Everyone left me so damn bored
I just find something, I want more

[Beat Switch]

[Verse 2]

Just got back from London
No interruptions
Running my mouth cause I need me a bundle
Won't settle for nothing
Short of my order, want everything
Don't call me no pop artist
I came here to top artists
I'm hip and I'm hopping over to the box office
Put that on everything
Firm with the posture
Big daddy big papa
I drafted my role and got put in the roster
Now I smoke like a rasta
While I'm whipping that

[Pre-Hook]

Give it up girl, don't play that shit
Give it up girl, don't play that shit
You the one I wanted way back then
Start it like its gon stay like this
You were the one I wanted way back then
So give it up to me

[Hook]

And I told you around 1000 times
I would chill
Then I told you around 1000 times
I need you
Girl I told you around 1000 times

[Post]

But I hope it bleeds through
Girl I see you

Cause nobody could do this

[Outro]

Don't know where we'd go girl
But at least you know I'm open
Girl you all I needed
