

Workin' Man (Nowhere to Go)

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

Sittin' alone in the dark wasting my time in the park Cause I got nowhere to go had me a job til the market fell out tried hard to borrow and there was no help Now I got nowhere to go I need a job for these two hands
I'm a workin' man with nowhere to go
One last look in the land Auctioneer with his gavel in hand and he said it's got to go worked this piece all my life broke my heart then took my wife now I got nothing to show Need a job for these two hands
I'm a workin' man with nowhere to go wandered aimless in the city with my dirt workboots and my old straw hat in hand singin' a song by woodie guthrie this land is your land it ain't my land I'm a workin' man with nowhere to go I was born to the sunrise Breaking back all day Now I've got Something to say I am broke but not broken
I am not alone cause there's a lot of folks with nowhere to go
Are they ever gonna understand
You can't leave a workin' man with nowhere to go
Are they ever gonna understand
You can't leave a workin' man with nowhere to go
Nowhere to go
Nowhere to go
Nowhere to go

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>

