

The Line

Battles

Curious light projects these apparitions in a slow dance
It beats like heartbeats, do they want to stake a neck into the so old love, man
The curious light projects these apparitions in a slow dance
It beats like heartbeats, do they want to stake a neck into the so old love, man

Along the line, we can be fine
You shot yourself
Along the line, we can be fine
You shot yourself down

Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
Strip the heart, and spend it hard
