

Better the Devil

SKOLD

[Verse 1]

Under my boot every snow flake looks the same
Beneath the scars there is an empty spell cast in vain
Inside those walls the little voices know my name
Below black stars these old dirty streets have no shame

[Chorus]

Tear my soul apart. Drown me in your sea of darkness
I'll be your luck star if you promise that you'll never let me go
Better the devil you know
Better the devil you know

[Verse 2]

The squeaky wheel is the weakest link in the chain
I see the cut, but I still can't feel a fuckin pain
Between these walls there's a tiny chance I could refrain
Below black stars an even smaller chance I 'll complain

[Chorus]

Tear my soul apart. Drown me in your sea of darkness
I'll be your luck star if you promise that you'll never let me go to hell with nothing left to show
Set me on fire, and revel in the glow

[Chorus]

Tear my soul apart. Drown me in your sea of darkness
I'll be your luck star if you promise that you'll never let me go
Tear my soul apart. Drown me in your sea of darkness
I'll be your luck star if you promise that you'll never let me go
Better the devil you know
Better the devil you know
