

Trail (Of Broken Hearts)

Hinsley

Feelin like McClane
Bare feet on the broken glass
I wanna run away
From the pain but I can't
I'm tryna chase the way I felt before i fell apart
I'm tryna run away from this trail of broken hearts

It was you, me, the Baltic Sea
An airplane with a place to be
Yea we cut cords in the middle of an airport
Two bags only one passport
We must have said goodbye
A thousand times before
I could tell this time
Goodbye was so much more
When you said

Feeling like McClane
Bare feet on the broken glass
I wanna run away
from the pain but I can't
I'm tryna chase the way I felt before I fell apart
tryna run away from this trail of broken hearts

Back before I fell apart
On the trail of broken hearts
Broken hearts broken hearts
Back before I fell apart
Fell apart fell apart
On the trail of broken hearts

I'm feelin like insane
Leg arms and a straight jacket
I wanna run away
From my brain but I can't
I'm tryna chase the way I felt before I fell apart
tryna run away from this trail of broken hearts

It's been weeks months
The years go by
I been thinkin bout you every night
Yea we had love then let it get away love
Two rings and then one gave up

I been tryna find something we had before
It kills me every time and breaks me more and more

I'm feelin like insane
Leg arms and a straight jacket
I wanna run away
From my brain but I can't
I'm tryna chase the way I felt before I fell apart
tryna run away from this trail of broken hearts

Back before I fell apart
On the trail of broken hearts
Broken hearts, broken hearts
Back before I fell apart
Fell apart fell apart
On the trail of broken hearts

On the trail of broken hearts
On the trail of broken hearts
I'm feelin like McClane
Bare feet on the broken glass
I wanna run away
From the pain but I can't

I'm tryna chase the way I felt before I fell apart
tryna run away from this trail of broken hearts
Broken hearts, broken hearts
Before I fell apart
Fell apart fell apart
On the trail of broken hearts
