[Verse 1]

Bitches run game like a nigga don't know
But I'm a front like I'm blind let that hoe be a hoe
Shorty fucking with my man but she [?] with my bro
It's all good baby girl hit me after the show
I still hit that like all of my friends
Let you give me good blow right the Benz, flash
Trying to front still my other man was in your DM's
The truth is you let him it when you move your PM's
You picked him up at the airport, Yeah, I know about it
Should've kept it real don't have to be a hoe about it
Telling mad lies, making up shit
You even stuck at the [?]
Nah really you fucked a few niggas that's friends
About 35 more that don't know each other
But don't worry, I'm a G I won't blow your cover
Don't worry, I'm a G I won't blow your cover

[Chorus]

First she fucked him, then she fucked you
Then she fucked me, she's fucking the whole crew
Then she fucked me, then she fucked you
Then she fucked him, she's fucking the whole crew
First she fucked him, then she fucked you

Then she fucked me, she's fucking the whole crew
Then she fucked me, then she fucked you
Then she fucked him, she's fucking the whole crew

[Verse 2]

Last week told em your uncle gone
Told me your cousin gone
It's just another lie, probably another guy
We really laughing why you thinking you slick
You such a bad girl sending us all the same pic
Kinda turns me on though when you a slut
Crack a bottle and you swallow while I'm digging out your guts
I ain't even going in the details
Say you only want me but your game is like retail
I almost got tricked by a female
She slips up quick when I'm asking for details
Who am I to call her out, I'm a let her slide
I'm a let her ride, unidentified, my niggas never lie
Actual facts, acting like it ain't so but you're flat on your back
It's your pussy do whatever you want
But keep it real in the field, baby girl don't

[Chorus]

First she fucked him, then she fucked you
Then she fucked me, she's fucking the whole crew
Then she fucked me, then she fucked you
Then she fucked him, she's fucking the whole crew
First she fucked them then she fucked us
Then she came back, this bitch is nothing to trust
First she fucked them then she fucked us
Then she came back, this bitch is nothing to trust

We could've went half on these triplets
But you was fucking with my man giving him dick licks
I really like you, almost wifed you
White knight you, golden rock iced you
What you do in the dark came in the light
Yet you look me in the eye and lie like it's aight
The worst part is that you still got a man
And you really thought that you could bounce
What a devilish plan, hoe

[Outro]

"Damn shorty. You really did a nigga dirty yo. I was ready to move in with you, and give you keys to the safe and all that. It was gonna be the same whips, kicks and furs and all that Come on, you got a nigga hustling I'm trying to get this money up. Put the kids in Catholic school and all that. I'm a have to buy some sneakers. I'm a have to buy a chain or something to get over this. I'm depressed. You really hurt a nigga with this one. Sorry, I'm a bounce babe. I'm a find true love. I'm a find me some [laughing] You gotta pay the consequences.”
