

Her Blood Into My Veins

Alien Vampires

When I saw her the first time in there
My bleeding path was drawn and clear in my head
Desire of blood is what is driving me mad
I'm falling down and hell is fucking red
Nothing more than this can turn it around
My soul is telling me to take you right now
What I can be without this feeling inside
Show me your neck you will be leaving this world
Her blood into my veins
Still running even if she's far away

Her blood into my veins
There is no human that will understand

Her blood into my veins
It's our own private pleasure in hell
Her blood into my veins
It's something over my perception inside
