

Phone Down

Armin van Buuren & Garibay

I try to go out, but I don't feel like talking
I stay in the back of the bar in the dark Saying "Without you here, might as well be an empty room" And the DJ from hell's got all our favorite songs playing And I can't put my phone down, I can't be alone now
When I close my eyes, all I'm seeing is you If I put my phone down, I might drive to your house
And do something stupid that I shouldn't do
And I can't seem to calm down
'Cause I need you here now
No, I can't put my phone down, hoping that you call now
Scrolling through our pictures, I'm closer to you
No, I can't put my phone down I bring someone home, just trying to feel more human
But it don't feel good in the end, 'cause like me she's feeling used
Deep down I know it's a temporary solution
So I could come out, pull the sheets to my head, but the bed still smells like you
I can't put my phone down, I can't be alone now
When I close my eyes, all I'm seeing is you
If I put my phone down, I might drive to your house
And do something stupid that I shouldn't do Stay alive, stay alive 'till the morning
I'm just trying to Stay alive, stay alive 'till the morning
I'm just trying to
Stay alive, stay alive 'till the morning
I'm just trying to Stay alive, stay alive 'till the morning And I can't put my phone down, I can't be alone now
When I close my eyes, all I'm seeing is you
If I put my phone down, I might drive to your house
And do something stupid that I shouldn't do No, I can't put my phone down
No, I can't put my phone down
I can't seem to calm down
'Cause I need you here now No, I can't put my phone down, hoping that you call now
Scrolling through our pictures, I'm closer to you
