

Healer (feat. Jean Deaux)

Mick Jenkins

[Mick Jenkins:]

My piss ain't never been so clear

My pockets never been so empty

My heart ain't never been this full

But my stomach is not so my nigga don't tempt me

I'm hungry, I'm thirsty, I'm tired, I'm smoking it off

It seems like everyone is only lost in dreams

And I'm getting lost in the thought of myself tryna wake niggas up like a coffee bean

She called my vices

We was at Starbucks gettin' lost in these carmel apple spices

Conversation all but prices, topics ranged from the innermost thoughts to all the trifling shit on Worldstar

Another soulless systems, and other planets of people, and how close our worlds are

And how she don't ever really smoke but how nice my pearls are

[Jean Deaux:]

I feel like water baby

Heal my body baby

You soothe my aching soul can feel like water baby

To soothe my aching soul can feel like water baby

Heal my body baby

To soothe It's so my aching soul

[Mick Jenkins:]

Cause life got a nigga stressed out

It ain't all just about rap no more

My name just like my phone and it buzz so much I don't even text back no more

I done sold so many clothes I don't even gotta pack no more

Just throw it all in one bag, break it down and roll it all in one joint

Take a puff and blow it all in one drag

We gone with the wind

Out in Montreal somewhere where your French don't gotta be excused

French inhales with some friends with my quality of life on the fringe I just see it as a muse

Everybody hurts, I just deal with the abuse

Passion of Christ with my pen to the pad

Your passion for life will exceed the paper just a sip of the holiest water he has

[Jean Deaux:]

I feel like water baby

Heal my body baby

You soothe my aching soul can feel like water baby

To soothe my aching soul can feel like water baby

Heal my body baby

To soothe It's so my aching soul

[Jean Deaux:]

Call him Confucius
Piercin' inside my mind
Truth is within his eyes never told me a lie
But hold me up to the sky
And ring me out till I'm dry
Never felt so alive
Call you when I might dive
Out the window floor 35
Tell me you not surprised
Can you sell your peace of mind
You my shooter, you my fuckin' savior
Let me rejuvenate ya
Open your mouth and let me fall into your solar plexus
Don't be so disconnected
I want to wash over your soul until you get the message
I wanna follow you straight home so you can finish stressin'
When you need fixin', give me 30 seconds
I'll cleanse you out until you all Qu'ran
Just give me bliss and if we kiss don't get too arrogant
Cause I've been missin', busy trippin' on how much it cost
And I am gifted with my hands, that's why I never lost
Cause when I stumble into you I knew that it was God
I know that

[Jean Deaux:]

I feel like water baby

Heal my body baby

You soothe my aching soul can feel like water baby

To soothe my aching soul can feel like water baby

Heal my body baby

To soothe It's so my aching soul
