Bronze Whale

I've been lost in the mood
It's just too soon
Clawing my way over to you
Distance closing
Feeling Moments

Body moving, try not stare
Keep it simple to be fair
Got that touch that Makes me rush, and..

Now I know you don't know
Play it cool, take it slow
Way you staying solo
Because I know, just tonight we'll let go

You been playing the game
More of the same
But I ain't the one that you blame
Left you broken
You still coping
Coming round from time to time
Yeah you fight but we still grind
Heavy breathing, got me feeling like..

I still know you don't know
Played it cool, took it slow
Scared that you're still so low
Holding on but I'm letting go
