

Hands and Arrows

Sometree

Of hands and arrows
Stairways and head coats
You stand, in my way
Again
Catch your eyes and fade

You are always in time
You are always in time

Spent half my life
Casting you from somewhere
Casting you aside

Spent half my life
Casting you from somewhere
Casting you aside

Of hands and arrows
I hold out and let go
Your hand
All over my face
I stand
In your way and fade

You are always in time
You are always in time

Spent half my life
Casting you from somewhere
Casting you aside

Spent half my life
Casting you from somewhere
Casting you aside
