

Willow Tree

Gregory Isaacs

No more now, no more, no more now They say that once the tear has fallen, the willow cries eternally cries out for we, my willow tree don't shed your tears eternally cause I have found the love I've searched for I need your tears no more (no more), no more
So tell be where, my weeping willow
and we'll could never be the saying cry not for we, my willow tree don't shed your tears eternally cause I have found a love I've searched for I need your tears no more
(no more), no more
No more, no more now, no more
So tell be where, my weeping willow
and we'll could never be the saying
cry not for we, my willow tree don't shed your tears eternally cause I have found a love I've searched for I need your tears no more (no more), no more
No more, no more
(no more), no more (no more), no more
