Jon Keith

[Chorus]

I wanna know You
Show me what You want from me and need to see
The world is getting louder, can you hear 'em sing?
Yeah, I was born for this
I seen it in the stars
I'm climbing, I ain't stopping 'til I'm sitting at the Pantheon conversing with the gods, yeah
Lord, I need You

[Verse 1]

Where you been? (Yeah)
I've been on my ish, yeah (I've been on my ish)
They know me not (Yeah)
Couldn't get rid of me, rose and I'm finna be top of the game
Told Him it's not for the gangs
'Cause your boy take shots for the name, oh
Holy, Lamb of God, He know me, chosen only who, who
You think you is? Don't be foolish, you can't do this, you, you
Choose yourself, switching lanes, you look like Judas, you
There go your sin like the ground, you abuse it, stupid
You thought you would be the one He chooses?

[Chorus]

I wanna know You
Show me what You want from me and need to see
The world is getting louder, can You hear 'em sing?
They saying, "Welcome to the mountain"
They saying, "Welcome to the mountain"
Ooh, yeah, yeah
They saying, "Welcome to theâ€“"

[Verse 2]

Yeah, I see loopholes (Loopholes)

I can't choose, me or a God who holy?

All I know, I ain't really wanna fight through
I just wanna throw it on cruise
Be alright, too
War don't let you hang loose
Can't be rich and die, too
What I lose hanging on what I choose?
Can't save kin and buy booze
Check my fruit, I ain't really bear it on a branch
Must be something at the roots

[Outro]

Tell me what they shouting
