Calvados Chopper

State Radio

And there's a quiet in the cellar And if they find us It'll be all she wrote And by the time the ground had thawed The summer She had barely spokeI feel so I feel so blind to what you're sayin' And if you don't And if you don't know the cost we're paying He came screaming down the river All hopped up on the calvados And whatever he Whatever he's taking Whatever he's making Please don't give me any of thoseLast time I saw him He was sitting up high in his caravan As if to say

If we are anything
If I am anything

Then this is who I amI feel so I feel so blind to what you're sayin'

And if you don't

And if you don't know the cost we're paying

Wake up the mother

I feel like no other word could hurt her more

Oh what's another lie

Tell us you don't exactly know for sure

How it goes

With calvados

Oh what's another war

When it's not your childrenR-e-e-l-e-c-t c-r-o-o-k d-i-s-t-r-i-c-t a-t-t-o-r-n-e-y

Lyrics provided by https://www.songlyrics.band/