

Shaking Heads

Foxes

Shaking heads of dreamless people
Need to know if I can let go
Can't look back cos now we're too close
And I cry but there's no use On the back of an endless night
Flying under a lonely sky
And I come around there'll be no love
I know the danger but it's alright
Wake up til I leave you darling You know that I can take it
Wake up til I leave you darling
We are young, we're foolish tonight
We're scattered through these lonely skies
Falling feelings
So young, so foolish
We left no bones, we left no traces
As time sleeps and we weren't waking
Coming back and we aren't shaking Blazing around these endless skies
Wake up til I leave you darling
You know that I can take it
Wake up til I leave you darling
We are young, we're foolish tonight We're scattered through these lonely skies
Falling feelings
So young, so foolish
Wake up til I leave you darling I go away, go away ()
We are young, we're foolish tonight
We're scattered through these lonely skies
Falling feelings
So young, so foolish
And we have no care
And all I see is blood, I'm lucid
And all I see is blood, I'm lucid
And all I see is blood, I'm lucid
