

No Show

Chousand

Waited forty-five minutes now I'm leaving
Stopped by the door just to catch my breathing
You only seem to ever call me when I'm sleeping
Always want to talk but no touch just teasing

Wait for me to get home
So you can plan on your arrival
To my cell phone to say hello
As soon as I get home

And I'll tell you how I feel almost every single day
And I'll tell you how I see it every single way
That you're a no show no show everybody says so

Getting clever with these letters might be over your head
If I try any harder it might break my neck
Yeah you're a no show no show everybody says so

Wait for me to get home
So you can plan on your arrival
To my cell phone to say hello
As soon as I get home

Just let me know when you get home safely
I need to know yeah you drive me crazy
No I won't hear anything I know won't hear anything

Just let me know when you get home safely
I need to know yeah you drive me crazy
No I won't hear anything I know won't hear anything

Wait for me to get home
So you can plan on your arrival
To my cell phone to say hello
As soon as I get home

Just let me know when you get home safely
I need to know yeah you drive me crazy
No I won't hear anything I know won't hear anything at all x2

You and me won't be anything x 2

You're a no show no show everybody says so X2

Wait for me to get home
So you can plan on your arrival
To my cell phone to say hello
As soon as I get home
