

Unapologize

Carrie Underwood

Last night
I was pouring out my heart like a waterfall to you
And with one kiss
I was a runaway train flying off the track to you "I love you" came flooding out
Couldn't make it stop, couldn't shut my mouth
Felt like a fool then I lied and said I was sorry, but I unapologize
I meant every word
Won't take back the way I feel about you
Can't unsay what you heard 'Cause you heard me right, and I won't try
To fight 'em back or hide my feelings for you
I unapologize
You know
People say a lot of things that they don't really mean
And last night
I told a little white lie hoping you'd forget the scene Where it felt like a movie under that porch light
Couldn't help myself when you held me tight
Said what I meant then I lied and said I was sorry I unapologize
I meant every word
Won't take back the way I feel about you
Can't unsay what you heard 'Cause you heard me right, and I won't try
To fight 'em back or hide my feelings for you
I unapologize Oh, there's no time to be Holding it all in trying to pretend
That I don't feel anything
Oh, I shouldn't have said I'm sorry
I meant every word
Won't take back the way I feel about you
Can't unsay what you heard 'Cause you heard me right and I won't try
To fight 'em back or hide my feelings for you
I unapologize 'Cause you heard me right, yeah
I unapologize
