

Comin Out Strong (feat. The Weeknd)

Future

High Klassified

I got the truth, me, baby! Like a nigga don't dance, but he make moves

They fuck around, now a nigga gotta shame you

I'm shameless, I be rockin' all my chains too

They told me, "Boy I think the money's startin' to change you"

Lord save you, Lord save you

'Member runnin' through the city in the same shoes

Now I'm gunnin' in the Benz and the Range too

I'm on point, now a nigga never take two

They said I couldn't reach Mars, so I turned to a star

Now I might have fucked around, might have raised up the bar

Now I'm talkin' cash, talk cash all on my pump

My nigga Cash said, "Watch what they do for the ones"

I know she wanna be poppin' all over the 'Gram

When the cameras come out, wanna hold my hand

Must be out of your mind, do you know who I am?

Man you're killin' my vibe, do you know who I am?

Oh yeah

They take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong I might end up with your hoe if I take one

Nowadays if they don't have a story, they gon' make one

Last night I gave my heart to a fake one

I done end up on the blogs with the wrong one

It's hard to tell the real stories from the fake ones

'Cause nowadays if they don't got it they'll make one

The only time I feel alive when I take this

I want a Vic but I know it ain't safe

Must be out of your mind, do you know who I am?

Used to hit it from behind, do you know who I am?

I can't give you all my time, do you know who I am?

Make you fall in love tonight, must don't know who I am, I am

I showed you a million, no videos

I opened up Bentley doors, I Aventadors

Bodies droppin' and we duckin' the law

If you the one to take the blame, you can't say what you saw, no

They take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Take my kindness for weakness
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong Pluto don't dance, but I make moves
We fucked around, now a nigga gotta shame you
Shameless, I've been rockin' all my chains too
Told me, "Boy I think the money startin' to change you"
God save you, save you
They might pick you up, just throw you down with the fall
You must not know who I am
You must not know who I am
I pour champagne on the ground
I pour champagne on the ground
My brother Casino said you wasn't Freebandz
(Freebandz)
And at the time I couldn't see what he was sayin'
(he was sayin')
You turned your back, I shouldn't have ever gave you a chance
(gave you a chance)
I got four lawyer fees, shit ain't ever end
I'm a boss, I'ma make my own family
(la familia)
You with my ex wildin' with different color candies
(so familiar)
I got Jenny, I got Tammy, I got Sandy
You try to sneak and leave 'em then I leave you stranded
Be honest to me They take my kindness for weakness
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Be honest to me
Take my kindness for weakness
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong Kindness, she lie
Still comin', lie
Boss, fuck around, boss
Kindness
Down, like a nigga, she lie
Kindness, she lie
Kindness, oh
