

Beautiful

DJ Shah

It's a glimpse of heaven
It's a glimpse of heaven
It's a glimpse of heaven
I want it inside
Of me

There are no words to describe
It's a painting, it's a poem
It's breathing life

And the sun that searches lighting the sky
Seeing, finding, everything
It's touching life

Imagine the silence of life
Full of structure
Full of color
Starry sky

As the moon suspending in my night
Seeing, finding, everything
It's breathing life
Looking thru the window glass
I see a glimpse of heaven
And it's so beautiful
I want it

Looking thru the window glass
I see a glimpse of heaven
And it's so beautiful
That I want it inside of me
Of me

I want it

It's so beautiful

Hey
You are looking
Thru the window

Looking thru the window glass

I see a glimpse of heaven
And it's so beautiful
I want it

Looking thru the window glass
And it's so beautiful
That I want it inside of me
Of me
