

Steril

Noxious Emotion

My time is over
The age is gone
Bent and old
I am waiting
Five thousand souls
And I've sold them all
Violence begotten
Sin blackened and spent
I've been here before
The sadness of birth
I'm afraid to stop breathing
Blessed be my failure
Blessed be my sorrow
Blessed be my death
Lifted so high on the cross for your salvation
Just one more fucking complication
Ask for a thousand souls
One hundred farewells
There is no time
There is nothing to say
The lines in the wall
Heads bent
Heavy blackened and spent
She's aameleon
Color of her skin changing to her surroundings
Just another fucking lie to appease my piece of mind
To please those around me
A worm of self thought
Dry bones dangling naked
I'm drowning
I'm crying
I'm pleading
Are you God in a world that's eating itself?
Are you God?
Tell me
