

I'd Be Lyin'

Blackberry Smoke

Tell you I'd be home every night
Breakfast in bed and we'll never fight
Say I'm wrong when I know I'm right
But baby I'd be lyin'

Only stayin' gone for a day or two
Pretendin' I'm too good to be true
Sayin' I'd write a song about you
But baby I'd be lyin'

Everybody's gonna tell you what to do
You can believe what you wanna believe
But let me tell you what's the truth

[Chorus]

Baby I

I'd be lyin'

Like all those two faced
Back stabbin' double talkers
Tryin' to get to you
If I could you know I would be
Comin' right back home where I belong
I'd be lyin' next to you

Call you every day wherever I go
I swear you're never gonna hear the word no
Promise that I'll never say I told you so
But baby I'd be lyin'
I'll let you take your time I'll never rush
I swear I'll never drink too much
Never think about another woman's touch
But baby I'd be lyin'

Everybody's gonna judge me through and through
You can believe what you wanna believe
But let me tell you what's the truth

[Chorus]

Everybody's gonna tell you what to do

You can believe what you wanna believe
But let me tell you what's the truth
