Eric Roberson

(1,2) badaaaaa,badaaa
Ooooo oooooo ooo
Oo oooooo ooo ooo oo hoooooo

[Verse 1:]
Pretty girl
Do you always use your smile
To get your way
Once in a while
Do you use your heart
Do find that hard to do pretty girl
Ooh oohh
Were you hurt by love beforee
Too much pain for your heart to endure
Is that why you hide
Behind a disguise ooh
Pretty girl oohh

[Chorus:] x2
One day your gonna wake up and find out
That a time can not rewind
While your out chasin' things
Seems like your flyin right past your dreams
I wanna know..who..you really are pretty girll

[Verse 2:]
Trust in me
Theres no need to run
Be yourself and what you want will come
You can rest asured (rest asured)
It ain't just your Beauty thats gonna get you through just doin wat the Others do when theres love happenin for you oooo

[Chorus:]
One day your gonna wake up and find out that a time can Not rewind
While your out chasin' things
Seems like your flyin right past your dreams
I wanna know
Who

You
Really are baby baby heyyyy
One day your gonna wake up and find out that a time can not rewind
While your out chasin' things
Seems like your flyin right past your dreams
I wanna know..who..you really are pretty girl
A rose can bloom
Before its time
But it will never bloom
If the sun don't shine
So live your life
No need to hide
Whats inside
Cause that ain't right
You'll see whats true
Whos meAnt for you
Loves you for you
Stop playin games
Now you might lose
A friend or two
But if you do
They never knew
You need to see
Open your eyes
And realize
That your worth more
So so much more
My pretty girl
I'm pretty sure
Your worth much more
So so much more (so so much more)(x3)
