

Fight To Hold (feat. Jeff Sontag)

Protohype

Weighted to crowded memories

Caught on an edge, unkown

Brace for the free-fall forward

Steps for the depths you'll gi

When the tides start turning

When the waves start churning

It's the ebb and flow you will fight to hold

Ebb and flow, fight to hold

1, 2, 3, 4

Out in through empty oceans

Left in the mist, alone

Deep in a drift we're fighting

We learn to survive the storm

When the tides start turning

When the waves start churning

It's the ebb and flow you will fight to hold

Ebb and flow, fight to hold

4, 3, 2, 1
