Girl Problems

S.O.A.

Call her on the phone Oh shit, she isn't home and you never know she ain't with someone else

Gotta say the right thing she might think you're a fool Gotta lie through your teeth to make her think your cool

[Chorus]
I don't need no girl problems I got troubles as it is I don't need to waste my time
I don't need more shit

You lower your fucking pride because you think she's what you need so you don't mind the pain or the way you always feel

It's just a fucking game she's got you on a line throw your feelings to the wind She's fucking with your mind

[Chorus]
