

Godspeed

Patti Smith Group

[Verse:]

You are the adrenaline rushing through my veins
Stimulate y heart hailing crystalline
You are the sulfur extinguished by the flame
You are everything to me all is in your name
Walking in your blue coat weeping admiral
All the twisted sailors Vienna and Genet
Ended all that's static in a myth of sin
Mirror mine ecstatic pale adrenaline
Then you said to me it could never be Set the owl to sea to see
And you said Godspeed
Love is a vampire energy undead
Love is like a boomerang it's gone and back again
On a raft of red leather on a raft of skin and sin
Tell me how to hail hail pale adrenaline
I'm walking follow me down the twisted stair
Stuck inside a memory shot and shot again
Hand upon a railing courting fate and fate
We're sailing sailing sailing down a black black river
And I plunge right in[x2]
Adrenaline adrenaline
Move inside my vein
Ah you're the speed I need
Throw the pistol in
Oh your love's a vampire
Coming in to suck
Stuck stuck stuck
Oh I fell and fell and fell
Down down down
Oh I'm going to
Duck duck duck
