

Wheels Fall Off

Jelly Roll

[Intro]

Lately I've been drinking too much
And lately I've been smoking too much
Like the stars are close enough to touch
Fucked up

[Verse 1]

Baby let me roll somethin'
I need to smoke somethin'
People checking for me
Like the weed man phone number
You fuck with that coke hun tell my why your nose stuffy
Tell me why you been fucking that lame for the whole summer
I'm here now what you wanna do boo
Tell them dudes texting you got a new dude
Yeah you got a little fame and you got yourself a name and you made a little change well I do too
Boss moves baby south Nashville
I don't need a fucking rapper co-signer and thats real
I just need my team and my bitch that's how I feel Like I took a Ferrari and sat it up on high heels
Yeah you heard the remarks
From the bitches how I used to really play with their heart
They was telling you the truth I was just playing my cards
I swear to god I dealt with you a different way from the start

[Chorus]

Till' the wheels fall off
Till' the wheels fall off
Till' the wheels fall off
We gon' ride
Till' the wheels fall off
We gon' ride right now
Till' the wheels fall off
Till' the wheels fall off
Till' the wheels fall off
My motherfucker
Don't try motherfucker
When you ride better look me in my eye motherfucker
Till' the wheels fall off

Till' the wheels fall off
Lately I've been drinking too much
And lately I've been smoking too much

[Verse 2:]

Let the soundtrack sound off
Nothing but a hound dog
When they sound off like they let a couple rounds off
Adderall out I been getting pounds off
When I'm coming downs the only time I have a downfall
We don't argue much but they are intense
But I love the way we fuck after the arguments
Girl I never really thought that I could fall like this Got me feeling like the Joker to her Harley Quinn
Girl I need you to need me I'm needy
I need to feel like you would never leave me
Believe me city to city freaking
The silence of the heathen
And I found some freedom
Man this shit is creepin'
The drinks that we been drinking and the xanax we been eating got us waking up on Wednesday feeling like it's still the weekend
We tell each other everything so we don't keep no secrets
And we know we got each other that's the reason that we speeding

[Chorus:]

Till' the wheels fall off
We gon' ride
My motherfucker
