

Begin Again

Noosa

I've gotta get out of this town
I've gotta get out of what's holding me down
I believe in storybook tells
If there's no one telling me so
I've gotta go
I wanna wake up on a bed of flowers
Say hello to the creatures in the sky
I know there's somewhere out there big enough to hold my love
Now I'm undercover hiding from this selfish place
If we move along to this so-called Wonderland
Could we stay a month with a spell, begin again?
Leaning in close for secrets
Tigers and diamonds feeding our minds
We will outrun our teachers
All that we whisper is not in our minds
You've gotta know
I wanna wake up on a bed of flowers
Say hello to the creatures in the sky
I know there's somewhere out there big enough to hold my love
Now I'm undercover hiding from this selfish place
If we move along to this so-called Wonderland
Could we stay a month with a spell, begin again?
Let's fall into the wild again
Into the beat of our own hearts
So far, nothing around for miles and miles
We'll find a place for our own art
