

Don Juan

Pet Shop Boys

The man who's escorting Don Juan to his bride knows he is courting an impudent pride Think of his jealousy, oh where will he hide?
The man who's escorting Don Juan to his bride
The man who will cover for Don Juan's old soothsayer films for a Warner brother or Mister Goldwyn-Mayer Think of his starlet, how much will he pay her?
The man who will cover for Don Juan's old soothsayer An impasse has been reached with the teacher of the rich
To quit would be discreet if swift but you know that I can't do that
It would be a disaster
It would be a disaster
I've got this sinking feeling
I'm not dreaming
We'll be sorry soon
At the end of the day when everyone's resigned to the heart of the matter and the measures in mind King Zog's back from holiday, Marie Lupescu's grey and King Alexander is dead in Marseilles An impasse has been reached
with the teacher of the rich
To quit would be discreet if swift
but you know that I can't do that
It would be a disaster
It would be a disaster
I've got this sinking feeling
I'm not dreaming
We'll be sorry soon
